CANADA'S BEST

I'm glad that our boys are walking up,
And signing their names to the honor roll.
The roll they sign is the "Roll of Fame."
And the lad who signs is the lad with a soul.
My heart beats true, with those Khaki lads,
For I know the sacrifice they have made,
But with conscience clear, and manhood proud,
These lads must be proud that they "made the grade."

With peace proclaimed, and the World at rest,
And the sword exchanged for the pruning hook,
The lads who have played the manly game
Are the ones to whom our country will look.

"To those who saved her, this Land belongs,"
Is surely the lesson this war must teach;
This Land, on whom the Creator smiled;
Its best is for those who stood in the breach.

Oh, lad, what a glorious chance you have
To prove what the real British blood is worth,
When the roll is called, you answer "Here!"
You'll be one of the proudest lads on earth.

The flag that you wave is tinged with blood
Of heroes who died that freedom shall reign;
Thank God for the name your fathers bequeathed;
Don't let it be said that they died in vain.

Bad Land's Weekly 'Budget'

—Cum Grano Salis—

"We did ourselves 'proud' the other day and had Mr. Caughins to dinner. While he filled his face with selected braxy he informed us that we spelled his name in too aristocratic a manner, far from being Caughins, it was simply Cogcins. We can all take a lesson from the busy bee; that is, not to get stung."

She—"You shouldn't squeeze my hand when coming out from the movies; when I squeezed back I meant you to stop."

—Me? I—why, I—I didn't touch your hand—
The Bentley correspondent hasn't given us any figures to show the large traffic that will pile up profits in the coffers of the L. & M. V. R. R., so we will supply him with some along the hog line. There were shipped for the twelve months of 1915, from Lacombe, 19,000 hogs, of these 13,296 were shipped by Andrew Gilmour, and the balance, 5704, by all other shippers. On enquiry Mr. Gilmour told us about half his hogs came from the West. Of course all of these would not come from the area to be served by the L. & M. V. R. R., but, to give the R.R. every benefit we will say half the hogs would have gone over that line had it existed. That would make the shipment for twelve months 9500 hogs, at 85 hogs per car, a little under 112 cars for the year, or just about six trains, or one every two months. Would the thousands of loads of grain that hay, etc., be able to keep the R.R. running the rest of the time? It seems impossible to get it through your correspondent's cranium that it is worse than useless to get a R.R. ship to Rimby, as it is bound to go under for want of traffic. We had hoped to get people worked up to do something, but nobody seems to give a damn. Having allowed themselves to be made cats-paws of by Taylor, Gibson, and Strathy, to unload their worthless charter, the run of the folks here seem to think they have done their "bit" and are entitled now to be allowed to hang around and moan and groan and say how they ought to have a railway. "Everything comes to him who waits"—perhaps I but we don't want to wait too long. If the price of hogs keeps up for another ten years we may be able to buy an auto truck, and that will help simplify our delivery business.

"Does your wife scold when you get home late?" Clarence—"No," she dictates it to a phonograph and lets me have it next day when I am wide awake."

Herb (the Bentley baritone)—"Did my voice fill the hall?" Bert—"No," it filled Jimmy's refreshment stand down stairs."

"Children," said Archie to his Sunday School class, "this picture illustrates to-day's lesson; Lot was warned to take his wife and daughters and flee out of Sodom. Here are Lot and his daughters; with his wife just behind them, and there is Sodom in the background. Now, has any girl or boy a question before we take up the study of the lesson?" Helen—"Please, sir, where is the flea?"

Chief of Police Miller was in multi. He was gazing into the window of Gilmour's Bakery when along came a tall, amiable elderly lady from Bentley, who looked like having as much material affection as an incubator, and tackled him with, "My good man, why aren't you in the trenches?" aren't you willing to do anything for your country?" Turning around the Chief eyed her a minute and replied, "Move on, you slacker! Where's your war baby?"

pure." Certainly; but that does not give any person the right to go outside the bounds of respectability. Why, the moment that Adam and Eve found out they were naked! they made themselves aprons of fig-leaves to cover their nakedness.—Ed.

We saw Tom Cummins, Jr., the other day. We hadn't seen Tom for so long we had to look at him twice to make sure who he was.

Brady Palmer says he has a sawn-off shot-gun loaded with Turk's Island Salt, and he is going to fill our hide full of brine when we come within range. He says it was a low-down trick to give away his method of splitting wood.

We are glad to be able to report that Mr. Putnam took in one of those "thousands of loads" of grain from the Bentley district to Lacombe last week.

The Pickering has decided to attend no more dances until the end of seeding. Any one therefore who wishes to give a dance and have it a success will postpone the function.

Saint Michael was suffering from rheumatism. "Every bone in my body aches," he moaned. "You ought to be glad you aren't a herring," said George Beddoes.

We started plowing on the 6th of April, and find Spring work very conducive to "Bad Lands News." It does not take any great mental strain to run a disc or gang plow, and the brain overflow runs to rubbish suitable for the Children's Column of the Western Globe. Our main trouble is to find time to transcribe this overplus as we are usually too sleepy by night to be quite sure which is the paper and which the pen.

Mac and Bill Kennedy have signed on with us for the coming summer, and as the busy bee extracts honey from the flower, so we hope to extract from them something Scotch and pithy during the next six months for the benefit of Globe readers.

We are sorry to hear Saint Michael has lost two valuable work horses recently. It is hard to lose a good team anytime, but it doesn't make the loss seem less to lose them just when they are needed the most.

An unconfirmed report is current that Sun-Set Hill School is likely to secure J. L. Robinson as teacher. We hope this report is true. To our unsophisticated mind J. L. is a fair to medium good teacher. He doesn't expend his energies bringing up a particular class to superhuman ability, but keeps the whole school moving up on a steady advance. He also has the knack of interesting the children along lines that don't come strictly under the curriculum.

The Bentley correspondent seems to have the needs and interests of Mr. Robert Edwards and the Eye-Opener greatly at heart. He appears greatly exercised because he thinks we do not write for that high-toned semi-monthly. We would like to ask him, "What proof has he that we do not?" We have not as far as we can remember supplied him with a list of the papers and periodicals to which we contribute.

Operations will shortly be started on dredging and locking the Rainy Creek to allow the entry of ocean freight to the Horse-Shoe Ponds. James Muir has been getting out piling for a wharf; he will be able to load his hogs direct from the hog lot. Messrs. Harland, Vig, Burger, Skjensberg, and others, are also getting ready to put up facilities for handling and docking large freighters.

"Our Own Correspondent"

TO ASSIST RECRUITING

To a recruiting campaign that would be based on the Derby scheme there would be no objection in Canada, unless possibly from Quebec. It is true that enlistment is not so active as it was, but this condition can be remedied in Western Canada, for, as we know the men of Alberta, there will be no dearth of recruits under certain circumstances. For instance, if a Sportsmen's Battalion were authorized here, it would be filled up inside a month. A regiment of this nature would appeal to a large number of our young men, as it appealed to the young men of Toronto. There should be discretion on the part of those who call for the enrolment of battalions. Let them take up local conditions, and let them be guided by the inclinations of the young men who are of the enlistment age.

The Derby system, while not compulsory, would classify the men and would impose a moral obligation on many of them who have not yet felt that they have been called upon to join the colors. But this would be sufficient. Conscription would not be necessary.

Production and Thrift

"GAIN or no gain the cause before the farmers of Canada is as clear as it was last year—they must produce abundantly in order to meet the demands that may be made. I believe it is true in regard to live stock, the world's supply of which must be particularly affected in this vast struggle."—HON. MARTIN BURRELL, Minister of Agriculture.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENTS ARE BASED ON REPORTS CONTAINED IN "THE AGRICULTURAL WAR BOOK, 1916," PUBLISHED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, OTTAWA, ONT.

LIVE STOCK—The herds and flocks of Europe have been greatly reduced. When the war is over there will be a great demand for breeding stock. Canadian farmers should keep this in mind.

MEATS—In 1915 Great Britain imported 664,508 tons of beef, mutton and lamb, of which 364,245 tons came from without the Empire. Out of 400,420 tons of beef only 104,967 tons came from within the Empire.

The demands of the Allies for frozen beef, canned beef, bacon and hams will increase rather than diminish. Orders are coming to Canada. The decreasing tonnage space available will give Canada an advantage if we have the supplies.

DAIRYING—Home consumption of milk, butter and cheese has increased of late years. The war demands for cheese have been unlimited. The Canadian cheese exports from Montreal in 1915 were nearly $6,000,000 over 1914. Prices at Montreal—Cheese: January 1915, 15½ to 17 cents; January 1916, 18½ to 19½ cents; Butter: January 1915, 24 to 28½ cents; January 1916, 32 to 33 cents.

EGGS—Canada produced $30,000,000 worth of eggs in 1915 and helped out Great Britain in the shortage. Shippers as well as producers have a duty and an opportunity in holding a place in that market.

WRITE TO THE DOMINION DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND TO YOUR PROVINCIAL DEPARTMENT FOR BULLETINS ON THESE SUBJECTS

Tens of thousands of Canada's food producers have enlisted and gone to the front. It is only fair to them that their home work shall be kept up as far as possible. The Empire needs all the food that we can produce in 1916.

There was another chivaree last night, the Arlington Hotel again being the objective point. A large crowd assembled in front of that popular hostelry about ten o'clock, and proceeded to make the night hideous with their noise. On this occasion, however, they had a surprise, and instead of vituperation from the inmates, they were cordially invited to step into the spacious dining-room and sit down to a bountiful spread prepared for them. The boys were not slow in responding to the invitation, and all report a good time.

Several pretty after-dinner speeches were delivered, and Mr. West, on whose invitation the boys assembled, was most enthusiastically cheered for his kind entertainment, and all present wished him a long and happy life, with many returns of the day.

We learn from the cities and other points in the Province that the "slackers," those young men who have not had the courage to enlist when the life of the Empire is in the balance, are making hay while the sun shines.

Business men throughout the country report that these slackers have formed a sort of combine, and while their braver brothers are fighting their battles, they are taking advantage of their absence and striking the employers for higher wages, and of necessity they are getting the money. This will continue until the war is over if the young eligibles have the nerve to stay with it in the face of public opinion, but what a difference there will be when the war is over. Slackers will be at a premium then, and the businessmen will see that those young men who gave up their all for their country's sake come FIRST. The best we have to give will be given to our soldier boys—and keep this fact in mind.

Albert Boodé is the latest young Lacombeite to enlist, having joined the "Vikings" Battalion this week. The headquarters of this battalion is at Winnipeg, and is composed exclusively of Scandinavians.

We learn that the members of the 151st Batt., who have not taken advantage of the seeding leave, will be concentrated at Wetaskiwin in the near future. The number of men left is so small that drilling is out of the question, hence the change. The men from other points where there are local platoons will also be removed to Wetaskiwin.

Herb Watt, of Watt & Flay, received a wire this morning to the effect that his brother Harold, residing at Appleton, Ont., was dead after a short illness.

We would call the attention of the Town Police, the Mounted Police, the Moral Reform League, the Society for the Aid of Neglected Children, and all other organizations of a like order, to the fact that it is time to get busy in Lacombe. If it is going to be a wide-open town the sooner the law-abiding citizens know it the better—then they will be able to clean things up themselves. We would like to publish all we know about the goings-on in this festive burg, but our machine-gun squad is off to the war and we are not heavy enough for the job alone. The police, however, cannot but know the state of affairs existing, and it is up to them to clean up.

MARRIED

ERICKSON-JOHNSON—At the Methodist Parsonage, Lacombe, a man—Joseph E. Singleton. We would again call your attention to the photos in the frame outside the post-office on Thursday. Don't miss this one as the writer was told by a picture-house manager in Edmonton last Saturday that "The Miracle of Life" was one of the best pictures they have ever shown.

LITTLE FIGHTING BY INFANTRY ON WESTERN FRONT

London, April 25.—The riotous outbreak in Dublin, which was put down by troops and volunteers not without, however, some casualties, and the raid by a German battle cruiser squadron on the east coast of England, in which the raiders retreated after having bombed Lowestoft, were the outstanding features of the war developed today.

Except in Lorraine there has been an entire absence of infantry fighting on the western front. The big battle, however, has continued, their rain of shells on positions at various points. At La Chapellelle, in Lorraine, the Germans launched a heavy infantry attack against the French which was repulsed. Some of the Germans obtained a footing in a portion of the French salient, but later were driven out with heavy losses.

Around Hill 304, and in the region of Senes and Contines, northwest of Verdun, the bombardment continues intense. To the east of Verdun around Moulaiville, there has also been a violent bombardment. In the Argonne the French destroyed with their guns a German post, and shattered a German trench over a small front. Considerable aerial activity by the French airmen, in which four German machines were brought down is reported by Paris.

On the eastern front, near Garbunovka, the Russians made a heavy attack against the Germans, but according to Berlin, were repulsed with sanguinary losses. Heavy artillery engagements are still in progress in the upper Cordevole and Monte San Michele regions of the Italian front. The British official communication from Mesopotamia says the British are still holding their lines on the right bank of the Tigris, against the Turks, and have somewhat extended them at one point by driving in the Turkish pickets.

SIX LIVES LOST IN FIERCE FLOODS IN SUDBURY DISTRICT

Sudbury, Ont., April 24.—A serious situation has developed in the last 48 hours in some of the worst of the Vermilion and Spanish rivers, which are overflowing their banks. Six lives have been lost so far, and the estimate of damage reaches hundreds of thousands of dollars.

"THE WARRENS OF VIRGINIA"

Here's a picture which presents one of the most famous stars, Blanche Sweet. If you haven't seen her surely you have read lots of newspaper articles concerning her.

She will be seen in a pictorialization of the extraordinary Delasco dramatic hit, "The Warrens of Virginia," by Wm. C. DeMille, and produced under the direction of Cecil B. DeMille. This is the supreme Civil War drama, with veritable armies, realistic battles, and vividly portrays the sorrows of impoverished homes and broken romances.

There is no necessity of our dwelling at length with this picture, suffice it to say that it is a Famous Players production, and you all know what they are—the very best.

See it at the Rex either Saturday or Monday evening.

"THE MIRACLE OF LIFE"

The name of Margarita Fischer stands out prominently in the moving-picture world as one of the most beautiful women on the screen today. She will be featured in that most beautiful play, "The Miracle of Life," which will be shown at the Rex Theatre tomorrow (Thursday) evening.

This production is a Mutual Masterpicture, and a sensational problem play in 4 acts. In it the fallacy of race suicide is exposed, and lets one know that motherhood is woman's crowning glory.

The main part of the cast is as follows:

A Woman—Margarita Fischer.

A Man—Joseph E. Singleton.

LITTLE FIGHTING BY INFANTRY ON WESTERN FRONT

London, April 25.—The riotous outbreak in Dublin, which was put down by troops and volunteers not without, however, some casualties, and the raid by a German battle cruiser squadron on the east coast of England, in which the raiders retreated after having bombed Lowestoft, were the outstanding features of the war developed today.

Except in Lorraine there has been an entire absence of infantry fighting on the western front. The big battle, however, has continued, their rain of shells on positions at various points. At La Chapellelle, in Lorraine, the Germans launched a heavy infantry attack against the French which was repulsed. Some of the Germans obtained a footing in a portion of the French salient, but later were driven out with heavy losses.

Around Hill 304, and in the region of Senes and Contines, northwest of Verdun, the bombardment continues intense. To the east of Verdun around Moulaiville, there has also been a violent bombardment. In the Argonne the French destroyed with their guns a German post, and shattered a German trench over a small front. Considerable aerial activity by the French airmen, in which four German machines were brought down is reported by Paris.

On the eastern front, near Garbunovka, the Russians made a heavy attack against the Germans, but according to Berlin, were repulsed with sanguinary losses. Heavy artillery engagements are still in progress in the upper Cordevole and Monte San Michele regions of the Italian front. The British official communication from Mesopotamia says the British are still holding their lines on the right bank of the Tigris, against the Turks, and have somewhat extended them at one point by driving in the Turkish pickets.

Ponoka News

Perkins—On Tuesday, April 18, to Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Perkins, a son.

A meeting of the tennis club was held the other evening, when arrangements were made to have the courts fixed up preparatory to commencing the season's play. Boating has commenced on the river, and from now on, during the summer months, the lads and their lassies will have a gay time.

Louis Fleming had, a great time on his recent trip to the eastern part of the province. He made his headquarters with Fred Bach, near Monitor, who entertained him in the good old-fashioned way. It is pleasing to report that Fred and his family are doing well, and like all over Alberta farmers, becoming wealthy.

Hats off to the Nebraska settlement. Their Patriotic and Red Cross work is certainly meritorious, and will be hard to beat. At a recent basket social, held in the schoolhouse, a sum of $125.75 was subscribed, and five farmers have each come forward with a steer or the price of one. This is certainly upholding the prestige of good old Nebraska.

A Barrett returned to Ponoka on Monday after a lengthy holiday in Nevada. He has taken courses in bacteriology, advanced creamery work, etc., at the Nevada State University, and feels that however much he knew of his work before he knows more now. He will be pleased to see all his old friends at the creamery, and regrets that circumstances compel him to abandon his usual visits in the country which he has made at this period for the last six years.

IN HYMEN'S BONDS

Clive, April 14. A very quiet and pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. A. Stewart, on Wednesday, April 12th, 1916, at 8.30 o'clock when her youngest daughter, Margaret, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Mr. George Waldern, son of Mr. C. J. Waldern, of Lacombe, Alta.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. L. Bradley, of Clive, Alta., in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her brother, Mr. J. R. Stewart, of Clive, and was gowned in pale blue silk cologne, with chiffon and crystal trimming and wearing the wedding

RUSSIAN FORCE BRINGS AID TO ALLIED ARMS

London, April 20.—The arrival in France of large numbers of Russian troops to reinforce the western front has brought great joy to the entente allied countries, where it is hoped that with them fighting shoulder to shoulder at different points with the British, French and Belgians, a material change in the situation may shortly develop. The moral effect upon the enemy is expected to be considerable.

How many Russians have been sent across seas, by Emperor Nicholas is not known, but what is described as "a great flotilla of transports" arrived in the harbor of Marseilles, and almost immediately afterwards landed the forces amid the cheering of the populace and the French troops, gathered at the quay to greet them, and the roars of saluting cannon.

General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, in welcoming the Russians in an order of the day, said they were "soldiers chosen from the bravest in the Russian armies, and commanded by officers of the highest renown."

Coincident with the arrival of the Russians comes the statement from Paris that the Germans, owing to the strong resistance of the French at Verdun, are withdrawing large forces from their fronts in Russia, Serbia, and Macedonia, and throwing them into this hotly contested theatre.

RUSSIANS WILL NOT TALK PEACE

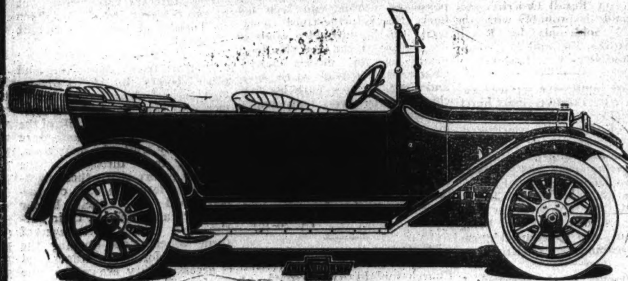

Petrograd, April 20.—The fall of Trebizond has given rise to a fresh crop of rumors that Turkey is approaching Russia with peace overtures, but it is stated in official circles that no such proposals will be considered for a minute by the Russian Government. Voicing a conviction that Turkey is a defeated nation and not in a position to make any claims, the Petrograd Gazette declares:

"We may now consider one of our enemies finished. The taking of Trebizond has so disorganized the Turkish defensive plans that all that remains for her is to lay down her arms and ask mercy. She already has sought ways to a separate peace, but has met with the absolute refusal of her

CANADA HAS NOW 310,800 MEN FOR OVERSEAS SERVICE

Ottawa, April 19.—In the house of commons today Premier Borden announced that up to the present time Canada had enlisted 310,800 men for the overseas forces.

During the first three months of this year there were 88,575 men enlisted for overseas service, according to a return laid on the day. They were distributed as follows:

Ontario, first division, 9,254;
second division, 22,435; third division, 10,039; Quebec, fourth division, 5,235; fifth division, 1,460; Maritime provinces, 7,311; Manitoba and Saskatchewan, 18,942; British Columbia and Yukon, 6,752; Alberta, 7,147. The enlistments in March were 32,705, as compared with 29,212 in January and 26,658 in February.

Society Notes

A fool and his money are soon parted.
Beware of women and wine—or even beer.

There's no fool like an old fool—unless it's another old fool.

Mr. James Scar-Face is a round again after a sojourn of thirty days in the fort, whither he was sent for being under the influence of Peruna.

If anyone has the idea that they can break all the laws of decency and propriety in Lacombe and not get shown up, they are mistaken. The Western Globe is on the job all the time.

Mrs. Jumping-Deer has invitations out for a luncheon, which will be held in the rear of Gil-mour's slaughter house on Monday afternoon at three. These pretty functions are becoming quite popular among the first families of our town.

When these bloated ex-millionaires get hot after a newspaper articles get hot. Up to date we have settled threatened libel suits to the amount of $45,000. A little thing like this does not bother us, however. There is lots of money in the paper business.

Now that Lent is over social events will be the order of the day. As prohibition comes into effect the end of June the frivolous ones should make hay while the sun shines—in other words, "rush the can." The colony will leave for their home at Hobbema on July 1st.

Mrs. Big Wolfe, in a very irate frame of mind, called on the society editor on Friday, and took exception to the item with reference to the function at her home as reported last week. She says that the flask did not contain Old Highland Scotch, but Canadian three-year-old. She wishes it to be understood that she is Canadian all through, and only uses Canadian products.

We have heard some of our citizens during the past week proposing tar and feathers as an antidote for certain abuses reported in town. The Western Globe does not believe in mob rule, and does not agree with these rabid reformers. We believe in moral suasion—even if we are threatened with damage suits. We know how to apply the moral suasion, too.

We have to be a little careful reporting society events in future, and if you do not see your name in the list, lay it down to the fact that we were scared to print it. We always do our best, but last week this office was invaded on more than one occasion by warm female women with a grievance. We will henceforth refrain from printing accounts of chivarees and such things.

"Say, Mac," remarked a wild and woolly young man from the west country, a day or two ago, "give me the latest shave and hair-cut and doll me up generally—make me look like a dude; just saw my landlady sitting on a soldier's knee smoking a cigarette, and I feel pretty lonesome about it; going to make a try anyway." Mac fixed him up, but we have not received any word of further progress.

Mrs. Baldy, we learn, with regret, is at present laid up with a very painful cold. It is said that on retiring after a light luncheon of rye and pain-killer she was so weary that she left one of her feet too close to the fire-place in her residence, and when her daughter happened in she found that two of her toes had been severely burned. Under the skillful care of the doctor she is resting easy as we go to press. She will not receive again this season.

A dainty five-o'clock tea was served in the green-room of the beautiful home of Mrs. Man-Afraid-of-His-Breath on Friday evening, and over seventy of the first families of Canada were present among the guests. The hostesses beautiful daughter Christobel made her debut on this occasion. She is a charming debutante, and was gownned in bright crimson with overdress of cheesecloth. Her dainty red-trimmed leggings were gathered at the knee and held in place by horse-shoe nails, and her sweetly pretty feet were encased in buckskin spats, which matched her lovely complexion. The only thing that marred the pleasure of the gathering was the fact that several of the guests got the next to the family store of flavoured extracts and imbued not wisely, but too well. The pair were called in, and restored order. A lovely time was had.

The 66th Battalion Off to War Zone

Edmonton, April 22.—The little girl looked over her mother's shoulder and smiled. She was a bonny child, with pink and white cheeks, and a naturally happy face, although the big tears stood in her eyes. Five minutes before Daddy had given her the last kiss and hug and passed on his way to the long troop train which stood waiting on the siding. "Daddy gone," said baby. "Yes," said mother, and, turning, wiped the tears from the child's face, then resumed her gaze at the standing train, anxious for the last glimpse of the soldier husband, who, to his eternal credit, had said, "Ready, my ready," when the country called.

Brave hearts, both mother and husband, and in spite of lowering skies and a gloomy atmosphere, brave hearts were in the ascendency last evening when another contingent of "Alberta's own," the 66th Battalion, left the exhibition grounds en route for the front and whatever the future may have in store.

We are getting used to farewells lately, but in spite of this "custom does not state," because each departure has its own interest. Last night's cheers were as hearty and spontaneous as any given before, and in many sorrow was as poignant as that felt by others who have seen their nearest and dearest leave the home circle. The 66th Battalion is one of those recruited largely from all classes in the province, and this close association with the general mass of the population, and also the excellent reputation which the battalion has achieved as soldiers, made for the presence of a big crowd to speed their departure and wish them the best of fortune. This, too, in spite of a sharp fall of rain, which occurred shortly before the time set for the first train to leave.

At seven o'clock the leading train was on the siding, at the exhibition grounds, where a cordon had been drawn about the line and carriages by the 138th Battalion, who, thus formed the guard of honor. Inside the grounds, the 66th Battalion was kept by the Irish Guards. Brigadier-General Crickshank and the commanders of the local battalions were on the platform, keenly interested in the proceedings and tendering their congratulations and good wishes to brother officers on their departure. The band of the 138th Battalion also occupied the platform, and their music tended to cheer the scene. It was good to see the spirit of comradeship existing among the soldiers themselves. As the first detachment of the 66th Battalion hove into view, all the men in full kit and carrying their baggage for the journey, the soldiers were the first to cheer, and then the outburst swelled into a big shout as the crowd joined in.

The leaving was not quite so formal as some of those preceding, and almost up to the gate-way leading to the platform friends and relatives stayed in the ranks with the men, gripping them by the arm, carrying their bags, bearing little gifts for their use on the journey, and in every way seeking to keep up association right up to the last moment. Then came the separation, and drawn and anxious faces around brought realization of what this meant. One could not fail to notice and admire the grand spirit displayed by the women. Children might sob, but then they did not fully understand, but the women were silent as their dear sons and husbands marched away.

The men were in grand spirits, joking, shaking their pals by the hands, and promising to meet them again "somewhere else" they passed through the crowd, and made their way to the waiting train. Once aboard, there was not a long interval before the warning signal went, and then amid of storm of cheering which increased in volume, the first train pulled out. A little wait and then Lieutenant McKinery, in person, led the second detachment through the enthusiastic crowd. Again last good-byes were witnessed, each with its heart-throb, which could not fail to rouse an answering thrill in the onlooker. The bandmen stopped playing, took off their hats and cheered wildly as the men took their seats in the train. Every carriage vibrated with the cheering, and the crowd, which had a last look around and shouted the final messages. Again went the warning, and with the 138th Band playing their regimental march the train steamed out to the west. The pair of the battalion being well-known figures of its popular commander.

SIR SAM HUGHES

Sir Sam Hughes did not return to Canada as a man who had anything to conceal or to be ashamed of. He returned as a militant, maligned minister, and when the scalps begin to be collected, his will not be counted among the trophies. Sir Sam is a man of high character and high courage. During the war he has been direct and above board. The men in whom he has placed confidence may prove false to their trusts, or contractors, who have not the interests of Canada at heart, may secure orders, but it is perfectly safe to assume that Sir Sam Hughes has no part in or knowledge of transactions that are harmful to the Dominion and to the Empire. The minister of Militia and Defence is not of the breed of such grafters as made, nor has it ever transpired that he has the suspicion of sympathy for those who would raid the public purse. And if we know Sir Sam, the man who would graft on Canadian war munitions would not be safe in his hands.

WHAT IS IMPERIALISM?

The lesson presented for us in this message bears out the highest hopes entertained when the first Indian contingent sailed for France, says The Times of India, which goes on to bear out what Ruston Ruston told the Calgary Canadian Club recently. The gallantry of her sons in the field, and the staunchness of her people at home, have given India a new place in the Empire and in the world. The presence of these Overseas contingents side by side on the historic battlefields of Flanders has revived the true meaning of that much-abused word, "Imperialism." There are some whose concept of imperialism is dominating based on force. Nothing could be farther from the truth as seen by intelligent men. The true meaning of imperialism is that each part of the Empire finds its highest destiny fulfilled within the Empire, and because it is part of the Empire. Surely that is what we mean when we talk of Empire—not only the splendor and the glory of the whole, but the splendor and glory of each component part, because it is a unit in the whole. If ever it could be truly said that the development of any part of the Empire, political or social or economic, was hindered by its association with the Empire, then we should be false to the Imperial tradition, and should have sowed the seeds of dissolution. That is the great point to keep before us in the fiscal adjustment which must follow the war. No fiscal adjustment that would tend towards more effective unity was practicable as long as the United Kingdom was an adherent to the barren Cobdenism which passed by the name of Free Trade, a name the Times. That has been jettisoned under the stress of a war education. The way has now been cleared for an effective commercial union. That union cannot come in the form of inter-Imperial free trade. But it can come through the agency of an Imperial customs union—a union whereunder each unit of the Empire will pursue the fiscal policy suited to its own peculiar needs, and at the same time adjust that policy so that all Empire products shall enjoy preferential treatment within its borders. For that the Empire is ripe, and over-ripe, though it has needed the shock of war to rouse the British Free Traders from their complacent optimism. When that time comes we shall claim for India just as much freedom in framing her fiscal policy to her special needs as is claimed by the dominions; the right will be hers, but ultimately we must prevail. We shall find support in that struggle in the wise and liberal words in which His Majesty has referred to the future of this wonderful land through the quickened concept of Empire fertilized by the blood of India's sons, shed in defence of its common liberties.

63RD BATTALION IS HIGHLY PRAISED

Ottawa, April 20.—There was a warlike scene at the Central station this morning. It was only one of the many that show how enthusiastic Canadians are that this struggle shall be brought to a victorious conclusion. When H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught called for three cheers for Britain's king, every man of the splendid 63rd Battalion who had arrived from Edmonton about nine o'clock, cheered lustily. The 63rd Battalion was inspected about 9.15 in front of the Chateau Laurier by the Minister of Militia, Gen. Sir Sam Hughes. He was accompanied by General McDonald and Col. Winter. Several cabinet ministers and Hon. Frank Oliver were also present. The minister of militia complimented the battalion and spoke words of encouragement. Before the battalion left, his royal highness, Premier Borden, with Col. Staunton, Hon. A. E. Kemp, and some of the headquarters staff, went to the station and gave the soldier lads a hearty send-off. The Duke also addressed the officers, and afterwards the warmly shook hands with them, they having been introduced by Lieut.-Col. McLeod.

R. Arnold, managing director of the company, who met his death in his garage by a shot from a gun in his own hands on the morning of October 12, 1914. The insurance companies, the New York Life, Sovereign Life and Mutual Life, set up in their defence the theory that Arnold had deliberately taken his own life, that he had taken out the insurance with this idea in mind, and that the financial difficulties in which the Dominion Trust

NEWS OF THE WAR

BRITISH BOMBARD
ZEEBRUGGE WORKS

London, April 25.—An attack on German positions on the Belgian coast by British warships is reported in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam. The bombardment is described as one of the heaviest in this region during the war.

"Several British warships, accompanied by destroyers and a number of smaller vessels, Monday, bombarded Zeebrugge and the German batteries off Heyt, Blankenburg and Knokke. The bombardment was one of the heaviest since the beginning of the war and also of the longest duration.

"The damage done at Zeebrugge is said to have been enormous. The harbor and docks were hit several times and some ships were sunk.

"British aircraft also threw some bombs on German batteries."

ZEPPELINS AGAIN VISIT
BRITAIN

London, April 25, 2:07 a.m.—Three Zeppelins visited the eastern counties last night, dropping incendiary bombs, according to an official communication.

The conditions were ideal for Zeppelin raiders. The night was dark and the atmosphere clear. There was a light southwesterly wind, which had generally been considered unfavorable for Zeppelins, but it was little more than a mild breeze, and any threat of a storm which might ordinarily have presaged was lessened by a favorable barometer.

The raiders appeared at about the customary hour, and seemed a little uncertain as to their location, as early reports show that only incendiary bombs were being dropped.

The official communication regarding the attack says:

"Three Zeppelins are reported to have come in from seaward flying over the eastern counties. Two crossed the coast of Norfolk shortly before 10.30 o'clock, and another followed about eleven o'clock. A few incendiary bombs had been dropped at the time of the issuance of this communication."

GERMANY READY TO MAKE SUBSTANTIAL
NEW CONCESSIONS

Washington, April 24.—Confidential dispatches from Ambassador Gerard, Berlin, indicate that Germany will make certain concessions to the United States in response to the note demanding the immediate abandonment of present methods of submarine warfare. Whether the concessions will be sufficiently broad to meet the American demands appears uncertain. However, officials reflected an air of hopefulness for an amicable settlement of the issue.

It is understood Ambassador Gerard has received broad intimations that the German government will go to great lengths to preserve friendly relations with the United States. He is understood to have gained his impressions from officials of the Berlin foreign office, including Foreign Minister von Jagow.

The Berlin government is confronted with finding a way to satisfy the United States without arousing the element which insists upon a relentless submarine campaign.

The reply itself, it is believed, will be presented to the ambassador by Wednesday or Thursday at the latest, and be laid before President Wilson by Saturday. This belief was further strengthened by the receipt of unofficial advice from Berlin indicating that the German government had decided upon its reply to the American note.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, who has been away on a week-end trip, was expected to return today. He may call at the state department in connection with his request for the return of the papers seized in New York by the federal authorities from Wolff von Igell, former secretary to Capt. von Papen, former military attaché of the German embassy.

PROHIBITION NOW IN NEW BRUNSWICK

Fredericton, N. B., April 20.—In the New Brunswick legislature at Thursday's session, Attorney-General K. B. M. Baxter introduced the "intoxicating liquor act." Under it, prohibition will become effective in the province on May 1 of next year. Later, probably after the war, there will be a referendum to determine whether the people wish to

GERMANS BOMBARD
LOWESTOFT

London, April 25.—German battle cruisers appeared off Lowestoft today. Announcement of the appearance of the German warships was made in an official statement. Local naval forces engaged the raiders and also British light cruisers. The German warships retreated in 20 minutes.

In the engagement two British light cruisers and a destroyer were hit, but none of them were sunk.

Lowestoft is on the North Sea coast about 100 miles to the northeast of London. It is almost opposite the Hague.

SLEW ALL GERMAN OFFICERS

London, April 25.—The Turkish garrison revolted and slew all its German officers before the Russians captured Trebizond, says the Daily Mail's Odessa correspondent.

GERMAN SOCIALISTS
ARE URGING PEACE

London, April 24.—The Rotterdam correspondent of the Daily Mail, reviewing the effect of the recent Socialist split in the German reichstag, says:

"The 18 members of the Socialist party of the reichstag who revolted and are now forming a new party for the purpose of stopping the war, have the support of large bodies of Socialists throughout the country. The exact extent of this support cannot be stated, but it is very considerable.

"Many Socialist organizations, including some in Berlin, have passed resolutions, supporting Deputy Haase, who is the leader of the new faction, and who was recently received by the Socialist party proper. One of the significant features of the situation is the fact that Socialists in munition centers support the new movement, notably those in West Prussia. On the other hand, the majority is supported by many districts in central, eastern and western Germany."

BRITISH TAKE HUN POSTS
IN EAST AFRICA

London, April 22.—British forces in the expedition against German East Africa have captured Umbugwe and Salanga, according to an announcement made today by the official press bureau. The announcement follows:

"Reports from Lieut. Gen. Smuts (commander of the expedition against German East Africa) state that mounted troops under Lieut. Col. Vanderventer, after their successes at Lolleisale, on April 4 and 5, continued their advance, occupying Umbugwe or Kothersheim on April 12, and Salanga on April 14. At each of these places small hostile garrisons were captured or driven off with losses.

"The enemy was encountered in some force near Kondoa Irangi, on April 17, and it became evident that a hostile concentration was being effected in that direction. Fighting has been continuous up to the time of telegraphing.

"Nothing of importance has occurred in the other theatres in East Africa. Heavy rains have commenced. Excellent progress has been made with the construction of a railway from Voi, which has now been carried forward to New Moshi."

HUNS CAPTURED IN
ATTEMPT TO LAND
ARMS IN IRELAND

London, April 24, 10.25 p.m.—Sir Roger Casement has been captured from a German ship which attempted to land arms in Ireland and was sunk. This official announcement was made tonight.

"During the period between the afternoon of April 20 and the afternoon of April 21, an attempt to land arms and ammunition in Ireland was made by a vessel under the guise of a neutral merchant ship, but which in reality was a German auxiliary, in conjunction with a German submarine.

"The auxiliary sank and a number of prisoners were made, among whom was Sir Roger Casement."

continue the dry restrictions.

It is provided that the lieutenant governor in council shall fix the percentage of alcohol allowed in so-called non-intoxicating beers, but it is said that it is already arranged that this shall be two per cent. The present liquor act allows 24 per cent. The act does not prohibit the use of liquor in a man's own house, or importation from any place outside the province by any person for his own use.

J. R. STRATTON, EX-M.P.
DEAD AS RESULT OF
QUACK TREATMENT

Hot Springs, Ark., April 19.—J. R. Stratton, of Peterboro, Ont., an ex-member of the Dominion parliament, and who was for a number of years a member of the legislature and provincial secretary for Ontario, died here today after 36 days of fasting. Prof. K. Feige, under whose treatment Stratton is said to have been prohibited from receiving any nourishment but water, was arrested, and held in $1,000 bail for alleged manslaughter.

Feige, it was testified at the coroner's inquest, by Mrs. Stratton, and Stratton's nurse, had been treating Stratton since the middle of March. They said local physicians were called in last Friday, when Stratton had been hiccoughing for 74 hours. Mrs. Stratton said Feige endeavored to stop the hiccoughs by tightening a belt around the patient's waist until he suffered so that she ceased it to relieve the pain.

MORE RUSSIAN TROOPS
ARRIVE AT MARSEILLES

Marseilles, April 25.—Marseilles was again the centre of tremendous enthusiasm today, as another contingent of Russian troops arrived unexpectedly.

It was a stirring scene as the Russians lined the decks of the transports, returning the cheers from the crowds along the shore, while the flotilla of warships and merchantmen in the harbor saluted with flags and guns and booming cannon. A regiment of French Hussars was drawn up along the quay as a guard of honor, the French bands playing the Russian national hymn, to which the Russian bands responded with the Marseillaise.

The Russians formed platoons and with flags flying marched through the principal streets. Everywhere along the route they received an ovation. They were greeted with a fanfare by the French troops of the 6th Hussars, and were welcomed when they came out of the boats by 150 wounded French soldiers who had been transported in ambulances and the tram cars to the quay. Having been paid this tribute by men who had actually shed blood in the common cause, the Russians showed great devotion to the French wounded and sent up cheers as the wounded departed.

The new troops are composed of young men of excellent appearance and sturdy bearing similar to those in the other detachments.

The Grafters

The session of the Alberta Legislature ended last week, and the legislators have left Edmonton for their various homes. As was expected by the opposition, the Siftonite Graft Brigade voted down every motion brought forward for the appointment of a judicial committee to look into the crookedness of Sifton's government, and it is up to the people to let Sifton and his assistants see what the country thinks of them. There is no doubt but that grafting is rampant in many of the government departments; in fact the opposition brought forward enough substantiated charges to damn any ordinary government. Sifton, however, is a considerable of a joker; in fact, joking is his strong point, and with much laughter from his service following laughed the charges out of court—so far as he and his government is concerned.

Sifton is going to get a waking up, however, next time he goes to the country. A joke is a joke, but when the people are convinced that millions of the Province's money is being grafted, and that the taxation is being increased to make up for such grafting, they will call a halt. Never in the history of Canada has such a series of substantial charges of graft been presented against any government. But Sifton, Crooks, and their little men, politely tell the people that it is none of their business.

JOB DEPARTMENT

WE have a well equipped Job Printing Plant, and are in a position to do anything in the printing line on short notice.

IS THERE A BIGGER THING IN THE WORLD THAN THE RUNNING OF A BUSINESS IN MANNER CONDUCTIVE TO THE WELFARE OF THE PUBLIC AND THE OWNERS OF THE BUSINESS?

The Grocer's business, large or small, is the Biggest Thing in the World to him, and therefore the individual items, duties, etc., of that business should be Big Things to him.

Attaching proper importance to every item, every detail, his best and most serious thoughts to such matters—for example: the quality and freshness of his stocks—every item of his service is a Big Thing, and by no twist of the intellect can be considered otherwise.

The measure may be defeated at Rimby, still there has been some thought and study there—that may have a good effect—but at Bentley, or rather, just outside of Bentley, they think that it is "only for Bentley's interest."
